COMES NOW Best Value, Inc., (“Best Value” or “Debtor”), the Debtor and Debtor in Possession herein, by and through its duly-employed General Reorganization Counsel, Jeffrey D. Goetz, Esq., of the law firm of Bradshaw, Fowler, Proctor and Fairgrave, P.C., and Joseph E. Sarachek (“Sarachek”), an interested party and the duly-appointed and acting Chapter 11 Trustee in the pending Chapter 11 case entitled In re: Agriprocessors, Inc., by and through his duly-employed counsel of record, Dan Childers, Esq., of the law firm of Elderkin & Pirnie, P.L.C., and DCFS USA LLC (“DCFS”), a secured creditor, by and through it’s counsel of record, Wesley B. Huisinga, Esq., of the law firm of Shuttleworth & Ingersoll, P.L.C., and hereby stipulate and consent to the following:

1. On March 16, 2009, the Debtor filed its Voluntary Petition (the “Petition”) under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (the “Petition Date”). From and after the Petition Date, the Debtor has been a Debtor in Possession under the Bankruptcy Code.

2. On July 22, 2009, the Debtor filed its Motion for Authority to Sell Property of the Bankruptcy Estate at Auction Sale, Free and Clear of Liens and Interests (Docket Item 86).

3. On July 23, 2009, the Debtor filed an Amended Motion for Authority to Sell Property of the Bankruptcy Estate at Auction Sale, Free and Clear of Liens and Interests (“Amended Motion”) (Docket Item 91).

4. On August 6, 2009, the Debtor filed a Notice of Non-Material Modification of Debtor’s Amended Motion for Authority to Sell Property of the Bankruptcy Estate at Auction Sale, Free and Clear of Liens and Interests (Docket Item 97). The Notice indicated that said Auction would be moved from Dubuque, Iowa to Waterloo, Iowa.

5. On August 10, 2009, the Debtor filed a Stipulation regarding the Amended Motion with Sarachek (Docket Item 98). Pursuant to the Stipulation between Sarachek and the Debtor, the parties agree to the following understandings and conditions:

a. The only deductions or payments from the Gross Auction Proceeds shall be the usual and customary costs of the auction sale, as disclosed and estimated in the Amended Motion, the commission fee that the Auctioneer is entitled to pursuant to the Order approving the Auctioneer’s Employment, and satisfaction of the validly perfected and binding liens of secured creditors (hereinafter referred to as the “Net Auction Proceeds”).

b. The Net Auction Proceeds shall be deposited and accounted for in a new Debtor in Possession bank account which shall be separate from the Debtor in Possession’s existing bank accounts, and there shall be no disbursements or distributions of the Net Auction Proceeds from said account except for those disbursements and distributions authorized by separate Order of the Bankruptcy Court or pursuant to a confirmed Plan of Reorganization.

6. On August 12, 2009, DCFS filed an Objection to Amended Motion (Docket Item 103).

7. The Debtor and DCFS have negotiated in good faith regarding settlement of the Debtor's Amended Motion and DCFS' rights and remedies thereunder. Pursuant to said good faith negotiations, the Debtor and DCFS have agreed to the following understandings and conditions:

a. The Parties have not agreed to an amount due and owing to DCFS but have agreed to continue to work on the accounting issue.

b. DCFS will receive 100% of the gross auction proceeds from the collateral in which it has a security interest and which is sold at the auction, said gross proceeds to be paid directly to DCFS by Taylor & Martin, Inc., Auctioneers, no later than the 10th banking day following the auction, together with a complete accounting of the sale of DCFS's collateral. The check for the gross proceeds payable to DCFS shall be payable to "DCFS USA, LLC" and delivered directly to the attention of counsel for DCFS, Wesley B. Huisinga, 115 3rd Street SE, Suite 500, Cedar Rapids, IA, 52401.

c. All of the collateral in the possession of the Debtor and in which DCFS has a security interest in will be sold at the auction. Although the auction is an "absolute auction", in the unlikely event a particular item of collateral is not sold at the auction, the Debtor agrees that the automatic stay shall be lifted as to that particular item of collateral, and the evidence of title of such collateral that is not sold will be immediately returned to DCFS.

d. DCFS rights to "credit bid" at the auction, pursuant to Bankruptcy Code Section 363(k) are specifically reserved and DCFS retains such rights.

e. For any of its collateral that is actually sold, other than by “credit bid”, DCFS, by and through its duly authorized agent, will deliver to the Auctioneer, Taylor & Martin, Inc., the original negotiable titles free and clear of all liens and encumbrances, the delivery of such titles to take place at the date and time of actual sale.

8. The parties intend for this Consent Order to resolve their disputes and otherwise confirm their rights and responsibilities under the Consent Order.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED

1. That the Debtor’s Amended Motion to sell the property of the Bankruptcy Estate at public auction on September 15, 2009 at the National Cattle Congress in Waterloo, Iowa is hereby granted;

2. 3. The Stipulation entered into between the Debtor and Joseph Sarachek as Chapter 11 Trustee in the Agriprocessors case (Docket Item 98) is hereby approved and the terms and conditions in said Stipulation shall be binding upon the parties;

4. The Debtor and DCFS shall cooperate in good faith to determine the amount of money due to DCFS on account of its several contracts and liens;

5. DCFS will receive 100% of the gross auction proceeds from the collateral in which it has a security interest and which is sold at the auction, said gross proceeds to be paid directly to DCFS by Taylor & Martin, Inc., Auctioneers, no later than the 10th banking day following the auction, together with a complete accounting of the sale of DCFS’s collateral. 6. All of the collateral in the possession of the Debtor and in which DCFS has a security interest in will be sold at the auction. Although the auction is an “absolute auction”, in the unlikely event a particular item of collateral is not sold at the auction, the Debtor agrees that the automatic stay shall be lifted as to that particular item of collateral, and the evidence of title of such collateral that is not sold will be immediately returned to DCFS.
